

RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES – Progress Tracker ANSWERS

Date of 1st assessment: Date of 2nd assessment:

Complete the sentences below with the correct word(s).

The things in life that you CAN live without are known as your wants, but the things you CAN'T live without are called needs

Being allowed to have things which every person 'can't live without' is called having universal human rights.

The global organisation which first wrote down a list (a 'declaration') of these Universal Rights is the United Nations

The individual Rights in this declaration are called its Articles
There are 30 (how many?) of these Rights in the declaration.

UNICEF is a global organisation which protects the rights of children

People may disagree over whether parents should be allowed to smack their children if they do something naughty;...

...this is because, if adults did the same thing to each other, it would be called assault (a violent attack).

Amigo's is a North Devon-based charity which works in a country called Uganda

This country is located in the middle of the continent of Africa

Also, it is landlocked which means it has no coastline and you cannot visit the seaside anywhere in the country.

How long a person will probably live is called their life expectancy

Literacy means a person's ability to read and write

When you eat food and drink, you are consuming calories (units of energy)...

... and if you eat or drink too few of these units, you will become malnourished